

Unplugged Woodstock: Put your electronics away & slow down

Put down your cellphone. Close that laptop. Step away from the tablet. It's time to unplug with a visit to Woodstock.

Stop 1: Pick Your Perk

Beantown Coffee: 9 Reeve Street, Woodstock

Habitual Chocolate: 389 Dundas St. Woodstock

Start your day off slowly with a coffee from Beantown or Habitual Chocolate. It's all about the high quality brew and local ingredients. Once you've got your order (may we recommend a cafe au lait), head to Museum Square and enjoy that java by the fountain. Help us go waste-free and get a discount on your coffee at Beantown by bringing a travel mug!

Stop 2: Take in Some Culture

If you love history...

Woodstock Museum NHS | 466 Dundas St. Woodstock
Learn the story of the Benwell Murder at the Woodstock Museum. This museum is one of two National Historic Sites in the county.

If you love art...

Woodstock Art Gallery | 449 Dundas St. Woodstock
Explore three floors of local, national and international art at the Woodstock Art Gallery.

Stop 3: Face the Music at The Record Works

399 Dundas St. Woodstock

There's no better sound than your turntable's needle hitting vinyl for the first time. It's even proved that vinyl is much better for your health (releases more endorphins aka happy chemicals in your brain) than MP3s. Consider that your excuse to indulge in the Record Works' extensive collection of new and used vinyl. In our books, that's a "sound" purchase.

Stop 4: Grab Lunch Downtown

Delicious pub food , traditional Indian cuisines and gourmet sandwiches will have your mouth watering before you even think to ask for the wifi password. Now that you're distracted, why not skip it altogether and just talk to each other over great food?

Options: Charles Dickens Pub, Crabby Joe's, Tandoori Knight, Dairy Capital Cheese Shoppe, Dee-Lights

Stop 5: Fill Your Afternoon

If you love being active and outdoors...
Pittock Conservation Area; 221 Pittock Park Rd. Pittock offers the perfect setting to unplug with friends. Set off onto Pittock Lake in a canoe and paddle your way to peaceful.

If you love treasure hunts...
One of a Kind Antique Mall or Nostalgia Days at Woodstock Fairgrounds; 97 Wilson St. Woodstock/ 875 Nellis St. Woodstock
Canada's largest antique mall, One of a Kind Antiques, offers three floors of nostalgia, antique furniture and more. Find the perfect piece to bring home. Woodstock Fairgrounds also hosts Nostalgia Days shows with loads of treasures to be had.

Stop 6: Dinner & Drinks

Enjoy a locally inspired meal at SixThirtyNine, a restaurant that is on the cutting edge of the slow food movement. Afterwards, hit up Woodstock's newest craft brewery, Upper Thames Brewing Company or catch a show at Theatre Woodstock. .

Stay a While

Woodstock has a great selection of hotels to unwind and unplug with. Better yet? Forget the driving! You can do almost the whole itinerary by foot. Where necessary, the city bus is available.
