Experience Level: Easy to moderate, recreational ride

Route Surface: Paved

Length: 34 KM

Route Description:

This quiet countryside ride will get cyclists deep into the heart of the agricultural lands in Oxford South, with stops in the towns of Norwich and Otterville. Taking Airport Road east and turning onto Windham Road, this peaceful, flat ride just keeps getting prettier. Taking Coal Line into Otterville the route gently winds past tree farms before arriving in this hamlet. Pick up some cold drinks at the corner store before crossing the stone bridge to the historic Otterville Park, complete with a summer time pool for a cool down. Stop by the historical plaque, a tribute to early black settlement in the township, before ambling along to Middletown Line for another scenic stretch. Back in Downtown Norwich, enjoy post ride refreshments at a choice of locations.
