

Truffle Camp

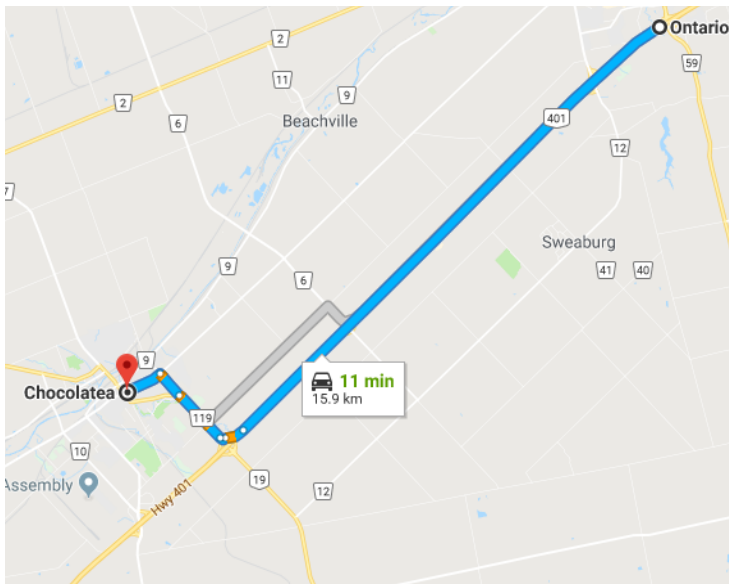

HANDCRAFT YOUR OWN GOURMET TRUFFLES INSPIRED BY THE FLAVOURS OF SOUTHWESTERN ONTARIO

THE 411

Step into the role of chocolatier for an evening as you work with local chocolatier, Cindy Walker of Chocolatea. Immediately embraced by the warmth of this small town shop owner, you'll love learning the art of truffle-making and handcrafting your own small batch of 12 truffles. Work with a mix of local ingredients from neighbouring farms to understand the terroir and flavours that make up Southwestern Ontario and some special international flavours as well.

Get your hands a bit messy as you create your own filling, pipe it into Belgian chocolate and coat it using a variety of techniques perfected by Cindy herself. Smell, see and of course taste, the fruits of your labour as you create a dozen truffles in four mouth-watering flavours. It's the perfect experience for couples, singles and families alike looking to try something unique and delicious.
