

A 67KM RIDE FROM TILLSONBURG TO OXFORD CENTRE

BILLY GOATS DUFF

EXPERIENCE LEVEL

Moderate to Difficult. Experienced.

ROUTE SURFACE

Primarily gravel roads, some paved segments. Gravel, cyclocross, hybrid or mountain bike recommended.

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

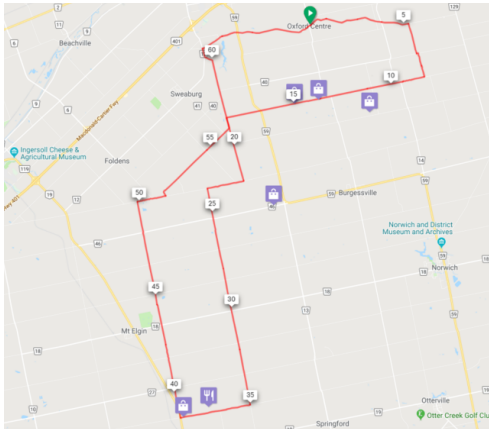

After a gentle 18km warm up, recalibrate for this extended gravel route and looped ride to Oxford south and back. Roll past farm lanes and driveways and long reaching flat farm fields, along intermittently tree lined roadways.

Perfect cycling conditions prevail on these low traffic north south country gravel roads, namely Zenda Road and Duffy's Line. At the half way mark, take a refueling and stretch break at either the Tillsonburg Airport, with a viewing and food patio at the Skyway Café, or Coyles Country Market, to stock up on sweet treats or something healthier.

Close the loop and head north pushing through some low grade rolling hills that set the stage for far reaching views. Cool down with an easy paved last 6km, on Old Stage Road, or for the gravel purists dip down to Firehall Road as an alternate finish.

ROUTE NOTES:

Caution crossing at busier intersections of north south roadways including Country Road 59 and Country Road 19/Plank Road. Slow down for passing traffic and agricultural vehicles. Be aware that gravel roadways are maintained at various times throughout the year, and while generally in good condition, may be in varied states of repair which can include fresh grading. As on all cycling routes, exercise caution at all times.
